South of the Border – Tijuana and Lunch ~ Cost: $65.00

Come and join us as we head South of the Border to “Old Mexico.” This tour includes roundtrip transportation from the Hilton Mission Bay to Tijuana’s International allure which combines an experience of culture, history and pure tourist enjoyment. After enjoying lunch at an authentic Mexican restaurant, you will have free time for shopping. Bargain shopping is abundant on Avenida Revolucion the world’s most shopped street. You will find an eight block strip of stores, stalls, arcades and underground passageways filled with bargains from all over the world. The atmosphere on “The Street” is always hustling, but we encourage you to browse at your own pace. From the finest Austrian crystal in sedately elegant stores to Indian women selling trinkets for pennies from sidewalk blankets, you will be able to graze the gamut of Mexican bargains in the heart of Tijuana. Our experienced guide, who will be with you throughout your visit, will be giving you hints for your shopping and point out all of the best bargains that await you.

Note: US citizens may enter Mexico for 72 hours or less without a visa or passport. Naturalized citizens are required to show proper proof of citizenship documents. Foreign visitors will need to have their current passport and I-94 form (multi-entry visa).

Customs procedures will be explained to guests and ID’s will be checked prior to departure to ensure that everyone has proper identification for re-entry into the United States. Visitors are allowed to bring back $400.00 worth of goods duty free and one liter of liquor per person.
